

The Star, February 1948

Call Stopped Fire

A prompt call to the N.F.S. today prevented what might have been a serious fire at the premises of A. Winch, Polishers, of 70 Rockingham Street.

Employees of E. S. Harvey, pattern makers occupying the same premises discovered the outbreak in a small room used for waste.

The N F S with Column Officer Blakely and Company Officer Board in Charge prevented the fire causing more than slight damage.