

Van Burns in Garage

FIREMEN damping down a Yorkshire Electricity Board van which caught fire in the Commercial Street, Sheffield garage last night.

The white stains on the van were caused by chemicals used by workmen to get the flames under control before Sheffield Fire Brigade arrived.

Workmen fought fumes to get close to the burning van, the chassis and engine, of which were not seriously damaged.

The paint and coachwork of another van were damaged.