

Theatre Site Wood Fire

Two of the firemen who worked in dense smoke yesterday to control blazing woodwork at empty shop premises in Sheffield's Pinstone Street.

The fire started as workmen were burning old wood during demolition of the old Empire Theatre.

TRAFFIC in busy Pinstone Street in Sheffield's city Centre had to be diverted yesterday when fire broke out on the Empire Theatre demolition site.

Firemen struggled in dense clouds of smoke to extinguish the blazing woodwork inside the empty shop premises formerly belonging to Neville Ned, the tailor.
